"Lisa taught me that I am capable of making a mind/ body connection. The resort and its staff gave me the ability to let go and be cared for. The standard of service was extremely high and not intrusive. My fellow participants all came with an open heart and contributed willingly of themselves. I take away a happy memory of each and everyone one of them. I am confident that my everyday life will be enriched by my many experiences at Bagus Jati.

Thank you, thank you, thank you. Having never immersed myself in such an experience I was so excited to have all of my senses popping off by being taken on a journey through so many new and exciting experiences. It has been the most stimulation and rejuvenating experience I have had in forever really. Your heart and soul is in this trip and I am so privileged to have taken this leap of faith to join a group of total strangers and leave with my new tribe. C. BOURKE, MELBOURNE

This Bali retreat definitely surpassed expectations and has filled me in so many ways. This was a journey of connection - to self, to nature, to joy, to a group of amazing women who shared it. Lisa created and held space for all of us to get out of it what we wanted and needed. I'm definitely saving up to go on another one. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. J. BOTHA, CENTRAL COAST
